Mr. Peter M. Flanigan
Assistant to the President for International Economic Affairs
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20006

Dear Mr. Flanigan: Pete —

I received your letter of September 19 requesting our assistance in the printing of the CIEP's annual International Economic Report of the President. I understand that you were unable this year to schedule this job with the Government Printing Office in time to meet your January deadline. For that reason I am willing to help out with the printing for this year's report.

The arrangements for reimbursement that were applied last year would be satisfactory this year. I presume they are similar to the arrangements that will be used when GPO takes over the printing responsibilities next year. You will recall that under these arrangements the CIEP reimbursed us only for the costs of those copies distributed by the CIEP, with the GPO assuming the printing costs for the copies placed on public sale.

When the members of your staff are prepared to discuss the specifics of scheduling the publication of your report, they may contact

Dear Mr. Colby:

CIA's Offices of Printing Services and of Economic Research (OER) provided us invaluable support last year in our preparation of the first International Economic Report of the President.

We are now entering the planning stage for the next volume, to be printed in early January 1974. We can already foresee that, if the quality of last year's product is to be maintained, and if we are to include the latest available statistical data, it will again be impossible to handle the printing of the report through GPO. As you are aware, international economic problems are no less challenging this year, and, especially in light of current international monetary and trade negotiations, we are determined to produce the most useful and relevant product possible. I should like therefore to be able to count on your Agency once again for the printing of the report, and would appreciate your concurrence. Should your staff have any questions at this time concerning this project, [redacted] (456-6266) or [redacted] (456-6422) will be most willing to discuss them.

Sincerely,

Peter M. Flanigan
Assistant to the President
